FOREWORD

To live a happy life over again is indeed a romantic experience. This is why the seventeenth volume of the Phippsidi comes to you. May it recall the sacred traditions of a lovely past. May it be a true chronicle of your happy days spent at Elon, reviewing "life on the hill" from its every angle. And if, in the years to come, when memories have faded away and friendships have grown cold, it can bring home to you your happy stay at Elon, the joy of service will have been ours.

C. JAMES VELIE

DEDICATION

To

C. James Velie

Dean of Music

Whom we admire as a man, trust as a friend, and love as a father. A distinct artist, a true Christian, a promoter and a leader, one whose services cannot be measured. A character whose influence lives in the hearts of the students and alumni of this college, in whose heart they dwell—for there's room there. Kind when you meet him, tender when you know him, loving when you leave him, jolly when you see him. To one so richly endowed, we the Class of '31 wish to show our sincere appreciation by dedicating this the seventeenth volume of the PHIPSICLI.

Class History

It appears like ancient history now, on a certain day in September four years ago, when everything seemed fresh and green, a group of prospective students of the same verdant appearance, first trod these walks and entered these halls which have now found a sacred place in our hearts. All was new and interesting, but, oh how insignificant we felt as the impertinent-looking people, who we later learned were upper classmen, gave us the "once over."

After the mystery of matriculation, still slightly bewildered, we followed our guides to the chapel, where the first shots were fired at us in the form of a series of lectures. Here we received our first baptism of "don'ts" and College regulations. Then came the faculty reception when we tried our wings as social butterflies (not to mention the numerous receptions given by all-too-willing Sophomores, where wings would have been most desirable). Next came the fateful day when classes started.

However attentive we were to our classes, there came a day when such nonsense was forgotten in the attempt to solve a problem several sizes larger. Noise, laughter, rivalry, balloting. What's a Jonquil? No, a daffodil? What is the meaning of blue, red? Amid just such confusion our class officers were elected. Capable and popular was our class president, Jimmie Fowler; vivid and inspiring was our colors, strong and courageous our motto, "To make the better best."

Undaunted by our inexperience and with a desire to rise prompted by determination, though we did not rise to stardom in all college activities so new to us, we engaged in them with sportsmanship and vim. We took our share of the lickings bravely, and showed that we could share equally in victory by winning the Freshman-Sophomore debate. Thus a host of pleasant memories were stamped and sealed in a treasured year.

Happy and proud to be entering into a year of work which would class us as typical and wise Sophs, we were willing and ready to start on the second year of our journey. Appreciating the kind welcome given us the previous year by those whose place we had taken, we felt it a privilege as well as a duty to greet the Freshmen and thus start the year off in the right way.

Having agreed that we would gladly follow the call of our president, L. C. Williams, we started cutting our wisdom teeth and became wiser, better students, always in step with our college. In this year, Wyatt Highsmith, L. C. Williams, K. B. Hook and J. Howard Smith brought honor to our class by their outstanding ability in debate. Another year gone, and in our hearts a song of exelsior.

Light-hearted and gay, we again assembled in search of knowledge. And with Lester Register as our guide our progress seemed surer and steadier than ever before. Realizing that everything must change, and desiring ours to be in accordance with our chosen motto, we settled down to sincere work in an effort "to make the better best." It was in this year that we had the privilege of entertaining the seniors at a Junior-Senior banquet. Shall we ever forget it? No, nor regret it. Then we got our College rings which shall always be a binding symbol of unity. We came out victorious in our debating this year, and George Kelly, a member of our class, proved to be a most capable varsity Basketball captain.

With Frank Johnson leading the march, we assumed our long-coveted dignity, for we are seniors. Our College days will soon be history, and the future appears as a mirage luring us on to new adventures and success. All of our battles have not been pleasant ones, neither have they been victorious; yet we can truly say that they have been fought in such a way that their scars are worn as medals, and their memories kept as trusts. The green, so jested about when we were new, was only a covering to protect from knocks and bruises the tender plants which have now blossomed preparatory to bringing the fruit of service. We have learned many lessons though not from books alone. The members of our class have been, through peace and rivalry, victory and defeat, bound by a chain of friendships, and have ever been working for the posterity and success of our group and our College. With proud and loyal hearts we have watched her rapid strides and achievements, gloried in her successes, and mourned over her losses. We go from here to speak her praise, "to make the better best."

CLARA SHARP, Class Historian.

Senior Class Poem

1

*We dreamed a dream in the freshman days
Of honors boldly won.
We pictured life in many ways
When life was just begun.*

*Our hearts were light in the soph'more days:
The freshman days were done.
We prayed only as a soph'more prays
For the glories of thirty-one.*

*Our junior days were days of toil—
No time for trivial fun.
Too busy for freshman-soph'more broil,
We dreamed of thirty-one.*

*And now they are come and almost gone—
The glories of thirty-one.
Now, strange! we long for the college dawn
And the fresh-man-soph'more fun.*

*We'll dream our dreams in the school of life
Of honors boldly won.
We'll struggle and juggle 'mid the toil and strife
For the freshman-soph'more fun.*

*Climb, though the rocks be rugged,
Wave our colors, silver and rose.
We Juniors, the Class of '32,
Are helpmates to all of those
Who know the toils and struggles
That college years impose.*

*We've mounted three rounds of the ladder
And there's one more yet to go.
Each step that has been accomplished
Now seems like a dream; and so
We are waiting to see the awakening
Which will surely come, though slow.*

*Far into the heart of some city
Or town or country space
We'll go from dear Alma Mater
To find for ourselves a place
Where we can still be helpmates
To others in life's stern race.*

*Of all classes here, '33 is most dear
To every Sophomore's heart.
For it we have worked, and never have shirked,
Each striving to do his part.*

*To a great cause we've plighted, in spirit united
We'll press bravely on to the test.
Not for personal fame, but for old Elon's name
We'll boost and we'll give of our best.*

*Each new rising sun, as the day is begun,
Brings many new tasks to do;
And though they be hard, our pleasure's not marred,
For we cherish our duties too.*

*In the years yet ahead, when the last lesson's done,
We will think of our dear college days.
May we ne'er have to sigh, and ask ourselves why
We have failed in so many ways.*

*Still skies will be fair as long as we share
Our burdens, our joys, and our fun.
And we'll know at the last, when the years shall have passed
That the goal we have aimed at is won.*

Freshman Class Poem

*With hearts as fresh as dew of gilded morn
And hopes alive with captivating dreams,
We brace our backs with truth's eternal beams
To parry with grim failure's thrusts of scorn.
We will not wince at tales of terror born,
Nor partner with the "cant's" in quitters' schemes;
We'll follow right as right to us beseems,
Though often right may be to us a thorn.
Thus stands the dauntless class of thirty-four,
Prepared to walk the corridor of time.
We follow in the tracks of heroes bold
To grasp the worth old Elon holds in store.
Like them we'll share the roses and the grime,
And take of life the leaden and the gold.*

ATHLETICS

ELIJAH JONES
Manager

A "wide-awake" manager who helped to pilot our football team over the top. Jones gave willingly of his time and efforts to coach and to the team. Without him the squad would have no inspiration. Here's to Jones, an efficient manager, one who served well from start to finish.

JAMES CORBITT
Manager

Another to breeze out from the intellectual halls and aid in the extra-curriculars. Corbitt is an asset to coach and the teams. He enjoys the work of a manager, which makes it pleasant for all. He pats the boys on the back whether they win or lose. A manager worthy of much admiration.

C. M. CANNON
Graduate Manager of Athletics

Mr. Cannon has served in this capacity for five years. His schedules for the boys have been very satisfactory. During the three major seasons they have been given trips to various places of interest, ranging north as far as Ohio and south to Miami Beach.

D. C. WALKER
(Coach)

During Coach's four successful seasons of coaching here he has won the hearts of all the Elon students. His wonderful strategy in coaching the teams has been a great asset in producing teams which bring honors to their Alma Mater. He has taught his teams to win a victory in morals if they can't always win one in scores. He has truly put across the idea that athletics should develop the mind, spirit, and body equally. Coach's ability to pilot athletics to success has been shown by the fact that during the past year his teams have won two North State Championships: one in baseball, and one in football.

"Pete"

We are proud of the record which the Elon football team, led by "Pete" Williams, has made this year. Captain Williams believes in clean football; and his team, following up the record which he has made for himself during the past three years, has, under his leadership, set a standard of clean playing which is a challenge to any football team.

But not only are we here proud of our team's record; we are proud of its captain as an individual. Three years ago, when Captain Williams first dressed himself in Maroon and Gold uniform, he did it simply as "Pete" Williams, never dreaming that he was destined to become captain of his team. But ability will always reveal itself; and there came a glorious day for Elon team when "Pete" made a line plunge which left both teammates and opponents aghast. These plunges grew more frequent as time went on, and it became quite natural to let "Pete" carry the ball. This year our team needed a captain. Who should it be? In the group of prospective leaders there was one more daring than all the rest, "Pete" Williams, because of his ability to crash a line, and because of his amazing ability to keep a level head, was chosen to lead his team.

All the students here at Elon are proud of their football team, and of its reputation for clean play. But most of all we are proud of "Pete" Williams, the captain and battering ram of the Elon Team.

SLICE ALL-STAR
Whatever Pete Williams, Elon's leading fullback, failed to show in his mule-charge fullback last season he demonstrated he could do last fall.

NO JUSTICE
The writers who cast their votes in one of the recently did Williams an injustice. We dare say that two-thirds of the fellows who went to their selections never saw Williams in action, and half of those NEVER CAN TELL why Captain Pete certainly deserved more credit for his season's record than the veteran fullback was rich and capable to get but a small part of the credit.

CROWN'S SUCCESS
Charles Williams followed some in the game with Guilford last year when the Christiana team came to Greensboro confident of an easy victory over the Quakers, and the Guilford boys won, 13 to 7. It was perhaps that game that blocked his path to the all-star spot which was considered to go to Spaulding, playing behind a line composed of Ray Parke and six other powerful men, games as creditable as Williams did against Davidson and Lenoir-Rhyne last year and Guilford last night.

The closing scene of the game last night between the Elon Quakers and the Guilford Quakers was a thrilling one. The outstanding strength of the Christiana team was shown in a game which was a real test of the Quakers' ability to stand up to the best of the Christiana team.

Williams was in particularly good form, leading the team to a victory in the first half by a score of 13-7. The Quakers led by 7-0.

The end of the 1930 football season brought to Elon the close of a successful year. Because of the hard fighting of the team, the crown of the North State Championship was granted Elon.

Opening the 1930 season at Davidson, Elon went down under the steady driving power of the Wildcats, 38-0. However, the next game saw the Christians overwhelm A. C. C. by the score of 45-0.

Into the Virginia the next week-end Elon lost to Emory-Henry, 20-6. Rollins scoring the lone touchdown. Wilmington Light Infantry was "white-washed," 33-0. Then Catawba rolled over Elon, 38-0, before a record-breaking crowd at Salisbury.

The two scenes shown on this page are familiar sights to those who saw the Lenoir-Rhyme game Thanksgiving. The above picture shows the starting of a 40-yard run by Smith. "Pete" Williams has taken out the defensive end to perfection. Dofflemeyer is seen smashing the left tackle "in." Smith is swinging wide to allow his "buddie" to "mop-up" the secondary for him.

BASKETBALL

36

CAPTAIN "COUNTRY" ROLLINS
Guard

"Country" proved a tower of strength throughout the entire season, and his cool, deliberate style of play furnished an excellent example for his teammates. His greatest value lay in his ability to hit the basket. He led the team in scoring with a total of 145 points. He was picked by officials for all-Conference guard.

WILLIAM "JACK" JACKSON
Forward

Hailing from the "Buckeye" state, Jack showed how the game is played up North. He gets over a court with the quickness and ease of a panther. His speed makes it difficult for an opposing guard to cover him with any degree of certainty. His floor work was superb at all times.

MOSES "DICK" CADDELL
Forward

"Dick," a local product, could be depended upon at all times to do his bit. This was Dick's second year on the squad at Elon, and with another year to play he should develop into one of the best basketeurs Elon College ever produced. He was second in scoring with a total of 137 points for eighteen games.

RYLAND "OBIE" JOHNSON
Center

Another product of the local high school who has made good. "Obie's" height aided in Elon getting the tip-off, but his main forte was to retrieve the ball off his opponents' backboard and send it back up court to his mates. Frequently he would slip up the court to cage a much-needed basket.

ELIJAH JONES
Guard

A regular for the first time, Elijah made a name for himself this year, playing in all the games. His ability to bring the ball up the floor and to start the plays made him a valuable asset. He also made a total of 62 points toward doing his share for Elon.

FRED FITE

Forward

Although a Freshman, Fred won a berth on the squad by his hard and earnest efforts to make good. He saw service in ten games this year, and each time called upon performed in a pleasing manner. Much is expected from this youngster.

KENNETH HUGHES

Guard

Hughes is a Freshman who received his early training at Elon High. He displayed his wares in no less than half of the games, and with three years before him should become a valuable member of the Maroon and Gold five.

WALTER "FIRPO" LATHAM

Guard

"Firpo" is a hard worker and deserves plenty of credit for his loyalty to the squad. Although seeing very little service in games, he never missed a practice, and in this way did his share toward helping the team have a successful season. Latham is a three-dimension kid.

JOE DOSTER

Forward

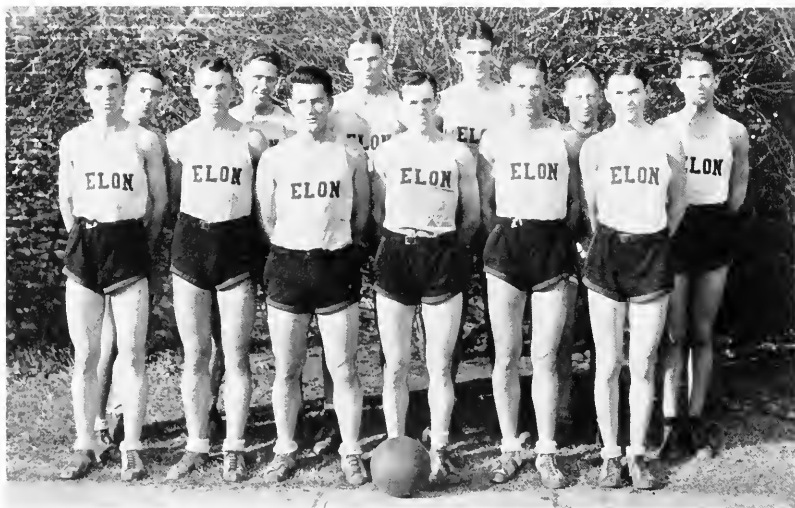

Joe is only a Sophomore and should go a long way before he finally writes "Fini" to his career at Elon. He showed no little promise this past season although used only in a few games. Watch him go next season.

DAVID JOHNSON

Forward

Another Freshman from whom much is expected next year and his remaining years at Elon. David, while yet a youngster, displayed all the earmarks of a cunning cage artist.

BASEBALL

ZEB HARRINGTON
1931 Captain

During the three years that Zeb has been at Elon he has made quite a record in baseball. His batting average ranges around .350, and fluctuates very little. He features both in the infield and at bat. His unusual ability to place his hits, which are quite frequently over the fence, has brought him rapidly to the top. Captain Harrington will play with the St. Louis Cardinals after he leaves Elon. Here's hoping that he makes good with them, and we are looking forward to his best season here to write finish to his college baseball career.

E. E. SEXTON

Pitcher

Another of Elon's twirlers who showed up well last season. Sexton helped to win many games at the bat as well as on the mound. He laid one down for Roberts to squeeze home on to take the Catawba game by a score of 8 to 7.

NORMAN CLARK

Left Field

"Little Cap" following in the footsteps of his big buddy put in most of his time as pinch-hitter. He also did some good playing in left field. He is looking good for the coming season. He has begun to absorb some of Coach's instructions and is expected to give someone a race for a position on the '31 team.

"DICK" CADDELL

Right Field

"Dick" made most of his efforts good when sent to the plate, and he also showed up well out in right field. He did not get in all of the games last season, but he is expected to be seen on the Maroon and Gold nine this time. Dick is a three-letter man and one that Elon is proud to own.

"LEFTY" BRIGGS

(1930 Captain) Pitcher

"Lefty" is one of the best sports that has ever been to Elon. Because of his unusual modesty he is admired by all the students and his teammates. He is the same "Lefty" win or lose, however he did not have to experience many defeats. He lost only one home game during the four years that he was here. Last summer "Lefty" played with the Raleigh Caps in the Piedmont League. He ranked third in the league of about 30 to 40 pitchers. He was referred to as "Lefty Briggs, former Elon star." He has served his Alma Mater well.

CARROLL CLARK

Right Field

Such players as Clark are the cause of people remarking, "Can't those Elon fellows hit though." "Captain" can well be called the "home run King," for when he slugged at a ball it took wings, and another would be handed to the pitcher. His absence from the '31 team will be keenly felt. Carroll was a real lover of sports. He played for what the game offered.

RUFUS ABERNATHY

Outfield

"Abbey" as he is called, has the earmarks of a real baseball player. He broke the ice for his start at Elon by unloading the bases with a three-bagger, as pinch-batter at a time that runs were much needed. He has done equally well since several times. We are looking forward to his showing up well on the 1931 team.

CHARLIE ROBERTS

Center Field

Charlie hails from Atlanta where he received his early training in baseball. His second year at Elon finds him playing center field, and playing it well. Charlie is a magician. He reaches into the air and brings down horse hides. He is also very clever running bases. He stole home on a squeeze play to take an eleven-inning game from Catawba last year, which resulted in the Championship crown.

"PETE" WILLIAMS

First Base

Williams had a big hand in winning another Championship Crown. He is widely known as "smiling Pete," and plays for the game it elf. His hard hitting netted many runs for the home team. He's so full of pep that he helps the others to "snap out of it" and play a fast game with him. "Pete" is nothing less than a Clean Athlete. One of Elon's most valued.

GARLAND MANN

Pitcher

"Ambition" certainly feels at home when he wraps his fingers around a baseball and steps into the pitcher's box. He was given a severe test however last season when playing Catawba. He was forced to stay on the mound for eleven innings, but holding his own he came out victorious. Much is expected of Mann this and next season, for he can be relied upon. He is the same in every game, win or lose.

ARCHIE FOGLEMAN

Third Base

This old smiling heavyweight surely knew his baseball. He has played the game from the cradle up. "There's no better sport," says Archie. "Let me have my baseball, and I'll be happy." Cheers come from the grandstand when Fogleman goes to bat, for he has a reputation of swatting the old pill over the outer walls.

FRED CADDELL, Second Base

"MONK" HOLL, Catcher

These two players are not shown on these pages but were two of the 1930 varsity team, and deserve much credit for the successful season that the boys had last year. Caddell was one of the best infield men that has ever played for Elon. He also had a very high batting average.

Holl performed well in keeping guard over the "home plate" and also at the bat. Monk had the misfortune to break his leg in the last game of last season, and will not be on the squad this time. His presence will be greatly missed in the 1931 line-up.

PAUL BRAWLEY, Captain

Track

COACH PAUL "HARDROCK" SIMPSON

In the spring of 1930, Coach Simpson, the South's greatest professional runner, took charge of a bunch of "green" boys, most of them being unfamiliar with the track in any form. He put out a team that ranked high in the North State Conference, and beat Guilford—our old rival—by a score of 62 to 64. Considering the fact that the team was the first at Elon for several years, that no weights were available for the men at the beginning of the season, that he had no practice field, and that he received no financial backing from the college, his team was indeed remarkable.

CAPTAIN PAUL BRAWLEY

Captain Brawley was the star of the Elon Track Team of 1930. Although he came from the "sticks" near Mooresville, and had never seen a track meet until his entrance in college, through hard work and natural ability he developed to be the high scorer on the team. Also, he was the most outstanding track man in the North State Conference.

Track Squad

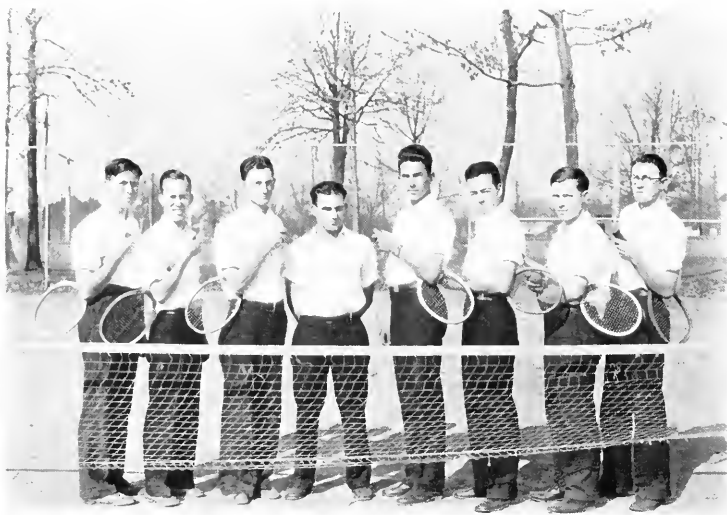

REVIEW OF SEASON

On March 27th we met Wake Forest, a veteran team, at Wake Forest for the first track meet Elon had participated in for three years. We lost this meet 106 to 20. The second meet, held on April 4th at High Point, we lost by the close score of 65 to 57. Elon was improving each week, and on April 18th Guilford was met and defeated, 64 to 62. Another set-back occurred when the Duke Freshmen defeated Elon, 93 to 33, May 20th.

In the North State Conference Meet, May 1st, Elon was third with $28\frac{1}{2}$ points. Brawley set a new time record in the low hurdles, placed second in the high hurdles, and third in the 100-yard dash. Rollins tied for first place on the high jump and set a new record. He also placed fourth in the high hurdles and broad jump.

In the State Meet, Elon won third in the football relay, with Brawley, Brown, Smith, and Rollins composing the team.

On the trip to Bridgewater, and Emory & Henry, Elon lost by scores of 73 to 53 and 78 to 48, respectively. The team was weakened due to the fact that three varsity men were left at home.

Tennis Review

The year 1930 was out standing in annals of Elon's athletic history, inasmuch as tennis regained its rightful place as a minor sport in the athletic roster of the college. Under the capable tutelage of Professor Ross Ensminger, Elon placed a hard fighting but inexperienced squad in the field, and by virtue of triumphs over High Point College and Danville Athletic Club, entered the Little Six Championship matches at Greensboro. There the powerful doubles combination of Johnson and Parker swept to the finals, falling only to the championship pair from Lenoir-Rhyne.

At this writing little is known concerning the 1931 edition of Elon's tennis squad, but with the capable Flicker Johnson as coach, C. D. Johnson and C. C. Howell as nucleus, and such players of ability to select from as Perkins, Smith, D. Johnson, and Lily, great things are expected during the current season from the Maroon and Gold racqueteers. Numerous matches have been scheduled with members of the North State Conference, and entries filed for the North State Championship Matches in Greensboro, and the State Championship meet at Chapel Hill.

We are hoping this year to arouse new interest in girls' tennis by having some inter-collegiate match games. The prospects are good for the coming season. Last year five of our team went to Greensboro for "play day," at N. C. C. W., an annual affair there. The tennis matches were the outstanding events of the day. It was there that we discovered that we have some real material for a good team. Our girls played one match each, winning all five. Johnnie Sharpe, Captain, played two and won both. These matches were won from six different colleges. As the saying goes, our girls "had everything" that day and brought home the honors. The fact that these games were not competitive ones does not detract from the ability of our players. Already, preparations are under way for a very promising season for the Elon girls.

Colonial Tea

On Wednesday afternoon between the hours of five and six o'clock, members of the Elon College Community are cordially invited to attend the tea which is served in the simply but beautifully decorated reception room of West Dormitory. At times these teas are modified and made to correspond with the season, as the Colonial Tea given February 19th, in honor of George Washington's birthday.

Through the interest and initiative of Redd Turner, a wrestling team has been organized this year at Elon. Redd has aroused a great deal of interest in this club as he is an exponent of the art of Jui-Jitsi. He is interested chiefly in teaching the boys some of the art in defensive Jui-Jitsi, in order that they may protect themselves in case of necessity. His pupils have been quite surprised at the possibilities of this art and enthusiasm is quite keen.

Boxing was introduced for the first time at Elon this year, though not as a collegiate sport, but in the form of a club which was organized through the efforts of Flick Johnson, who also acted in the capacity of Coach. Quite an interest was aroused on the part of the boys in the manly art of self defense and active training was begun in the specially constructed gym in the basement of the Alumni Building, with all necessary equipment available. Under the careful tutورش of Coach Johnson a formidable team has been developed which with a little more experience should be able to enter into inter-collegiate competition with other schools next year.

Moyle Fite to Pete Williams: "Lo, I am with you always, lest I cannot find you."

Salesman: "Selling your car? What's the matter?"

Brill: "When I bought it you said it was good on the pick up."

Salesman: "Well, what's the matter?"

Brill: "I've had it two months and have only picked up two old maids."

X: "I see that Zeb is a full-time waiter now."

Y: "I knew that he worked in the dining hall."

X: "I'm talking about his 'waiting' in West dorm reception room."

"Are you Hungary?"

"Yes, Siam."

"Well, Russia 'long and I'll Fiji."

Mother: "Idell, did you let him kiss you when he left?"

Idell: "Let him! Why I should say not! I had to help him!"

"Was your daughter's musical education a success?"

"Yes! I bought the houses on either side of us at half their value."

Newspaper account of auto smash-up:

"The accident hurt her somewhat and bruised her otherwise."

Dad (sternly): "Where were you last night?"

Son: "Oh, just riding around with some of the boys."

Dad: "Well, tell them not to leave their hair-pins in the car next time."

Johnnie: "How's your matrimonial race coming?"

Mary Sue: "I was on my fifth lap last night."

Customer: "This food is terrible. Where is the proprietor of this cafe?"

Waiter: "He's out to lunch."

Negro (visiting hospital): "Doctor, how is my wife?"

Interne: "Fine; she's convalescing now."

Negro: "Well, I'd like to see her when she gets through."

A traffic light

Means "Stop" when red;

But lips that are

Mean "Go Ahead."

Soph: "What's a definition for a college professor?"

Junior: "A man who is paid to study sleeping conditions among students."

Prof. Powell: "Shall I take this road to Durham?"

Farmer: "Tain't necessary! They already have some there."

Prof. Bennet (in Bible class): "Copeland, tell us something about the Israelites."

Copeland: "I don't know anything about them. We have electric lights in our dormitory."

Policeman: "Mr. Moffitt, what relation are you to that woman which will justify your staying with her so much?"

E. L.: "I'm her step-husband; when her husband steps in, I step out."

Prof. VanCleave: "What's the difference between a hill and a pill?"

Steed: "A hill is hard to get up, and a pill is hard to get down."

A despondent husband threatened to take his life if wifey would go and get the gun.

She immediately secured the said weapon.

Papa hollered: "Sell the gun, Willie; Mama's getting too obliging."

Waters: "What's the best thing in the world?"

Shrimp: "I don't know; but I know what is best to the best thing in the world."

Waters: "What?"

Shrimp: "Lipstick."

JOKES

Joe: "Last night I dreamed I was married to the most beautiful girl in the world."

Doris: "Oh, Joe, were we happy?"

✓ ✓

George: "How much do you weigh?"

Mary Sue: "A hundred and fifty pounds."

George: "You must have been weighed with your coat on."

Mary Sue: "You're crazy! I held it on my arm."

✓ ✓

Jack: "Do you know Bill?"

Elijah: "Yes. I used to sleep with him."

Jack: "Roommates?"

Elijah: "No. Classmates."

✓ ✓

Jake Parks: "Well, Dad, I just ran up to say hello."

Father: "Too late, son. Your mother ran up to say good-by and got all the change."

✓ ✓

Daughter: "Papa, what is your birthstone?"

Father of Seven: "My dear, I'm not quite sure, but I think it's a grindstone."

✓ ✓

Flossie (to ticket agent): "Give me a ticket, please."

Ticket Agent: "Where to?"

Flossie: "It's none of your business."

✓ ✓

Prof. Barney asked one of his students to write a brief. The student wrote it and when he got it back it had this on it:

"Too brief—D."

Professors are queer beings.

✓ ✓

Lager: "May I see you tonight?"

Fay (very politely): "No."

Lager: "Why, you are as full of airs as a hand organ!"

Fay: "Maybe I am; but I do not go with a crank."

✓ ✓

"Let's go to the Library."

"Sorry! I gotta study!"

✓ ✓

Dr. Swann: "I seem to have forgotten my roll book, so I'll just ask those who are absent to give me their names after class."

Some people reduce by exercising;
Others eat in the college dining hall.

✓ ✓

Clerk: "This book will do half your work."
Charlie Roberts: "Gimme two—quick!"

✓ ✓

"They say College Students should have eight hours of sleep a day."

Red Copeland: "True, but who wants to take eight classes?"

✓ ✓

Helen, Katie and Johnson were each waiting for a haircut.

The barber said: "Who next?"

Johnson said: "Katie, sir."

Katie: "You're a big story teller; I don't."

✓ ✓

Truth: "Love is a great life if you don't waken."

✓ ✓

"I call my girl grapefruit:

I gotta good reason why.

Tried to squeeze her the other night,

And got socked in the eye."

✓ ✓

Prof. Martin: "There's someone in this class who's making a jackass of himself. When he's through, I'll commence."

✓ ✓

Barber Nall: "Sorry I cut through your cheek."

Jack Chandler: "Don't mention it. Luckily, I had my tongue in the other side of my mouth."

✓ ✓

Prof. Martin: "What do you think being 'air minded' means, Mr. Parks?"

Jack: "A person with wind on his brain."

✓ ✓

Kenneth Hook: "Why is it difficult for me to find my ideal?"

Margarite Harriss: "Because women are looking for their ideal also."

✓ ✓

Prof. Martin: "Miss Moore, how much tea was destroyed at the Boston Tea Party?"

Miss Moore: "I don't know; but I think it was about twelve pitchertuls."

✓ ✓

Mother Ring: "Did the doctor call to see you yesterday?"

George Kelly: "No. It doesn't take a doctor to tell me my trouble."

Mother Ring: "What is your trouble?"

George: "It is clearly a case of high blond pressure."
